

Contents

- 7 The Architecture of Betrayal
Francesco Dal Co

31 Buildings and Projects

Writings by Tadao Ando

- 444 A Wedge in Circumstances
445 The Wall as Territorial Delineation
446 From Self-Enclosed Modern Architecture towards Universality
449 Interior, Exterior
450 Facing up to the Crisis in Architecture
451 Mutual Independence, Mutual Interpenetration
453 Shintai and Space
454 Representation and Abstraction
455 From the Church on the Water to the Church of the Light
456 Materials, Geometry and Nature
457 Spatial Composition and Nature
458 Light, Shadow and Form
460 Nature and Architecture
461 The Traces of Architectural Intentions
462 From the Periphery of Architecture
466 The Power of Unrealized Vision
467 Sensibility and Abstraction
468 In the Japanese Pavilion at Expo 92, Seville
470 Light
472 The Agony of Sustained Thought:
The Difficulty of Persevering
474 The Eternal within the Moment
476 Interview with Tadao Ando
Hiroshi Maruyama

Critical Anthology

- 484 Tadao Ando
Vittorio Gregotti
485 Tadao Ando: Heir to a Tradition
Kiyoshi Takeyama
488 Tadao Ando's Critical Modernism
Kenneth Frampton
489 The Story AND O
Peter Eisenman
490 Tadao Ando and the Cult of Shintai
Kenneth Frampton
492 Infinitesimally Small and as Palpable as Silence
Giordano Tironi
495 Dormant Lines
Darell Wayne Fields
496 Indiciencies: in the Drawing Lines of Tadao Ando
Peter Eisenman
498 'Brutalizing' History and the Earth
François Chaslin
500 The Architecture of Tadao Ando –
Predicated on Participation
Tom Heneghan
501 Tadao Ando and the Enclosure of Modernism
Fredric Jameson
503 Three Houses by Tadao Ando
Vittorio Magnago Lampugnani
507 Minimalism and Architecture
Vittorio Gregotti
509 Reflections on the Architecture of Tadao Ando
Yuzuru Tominaga

Appendices

- 514 Biography
515 Bibliography
519 Bibliography of Works
523 Index of Works
524 Photographic Credits